"Marianbead Look"
Good news for women tired of back-bashing and so-called "teasing." The bouffant hairdo is not for fall. Instead, it's the "Marianbead Look."

The styling is short and smooth, with bangs swept across the forehead. The name is taken from the French art movie in which the star wears such a style.

Pique Haul
The vacationists who act like Sherlock Holmes when checking out of a hotel are apt to make a pique haul—of their own. Alvin Maltz, General Manager of a Puerto Rico hotel, offers some good tips on leaving departing guests should search the floors and all flat surfaces, including under desk blotters. He also suggests checking under pillow cases behind doors. — 10

"Worry Beads"
A jewelry manufacturer has the answer for fidgeting hands. It's a string of "worry beads" to fiddle with when in a pocket or to tuck in the open—your own or your friend's. But it's not a new idea. The Chinese used two smooth pieces of jade and Arabe have used the beads for years.

Driver still in hospital after crash

One man is in Rosam Memorial Hospital, and one was treated and released following a two-car accident in Fenelon Falls on Saturday.

Wilbert Johnson, 64, of Fenelon Falls was in the driver's seat of a 1958 Chevrolet when it crashed into a tree on the highway at the intersection of highway 121 and West St. in Fenelon Falls.

Investigating officer Chief W. Weaver, of Fenelon, told "The Post" that charges will be laid, and damage to both vehicles was about $300.

10 rental units to be built

Noticed

Long Lake over one mile away. The loan appeared quite excited upon seeing his family and expected on the surface to be letting his shrill call and flapping his wings if he thought his benefactors. The officers behind the loan may have learned on the narrow ribbon of road mistakenly thinking it was a river or narrow lake.

Their comment regarding this incident was a story, "just a grasshopper minding his own business." Ed. Note: This story came as a bit of surprise. We were under the impression that seeing "fence" on the highway was not at all unusual.

Ten rental units will be constructed in Lindsay by the federal government housing branch and the ratification of Council. The mayor reviewed that in an earlier rental survey of ten units, favored by the housing branch, was turned down by Central Mortgage and Housing Corp. Ltd.

According to the latest report 18 families have applied for housing. Similar houses on Short Ave. are showing a profit was pointed out. Councilor DeGroat voiced the opinion that rental facilities were badly needed in town. "You will recall the difficulty Schult personnel had," he observed.

and nothing has been done since." Hutton: "I would say the city has been badly neglected."

Reeve found explained the measures of the 17 municipal council from the RGA Arbitration Board. You go and talk and plead with them to give Lindsay something and you will see how far you get. Reeve, of other municipalities have told me they can see why we are holding but to just keep on holding."

Mr. DeGroat: "My understanding is these assessments could not favor giving Lindsay this mill, they have to please their respective municipalities so it is understandable we get nowhere with these arbitration."

But with higher authority we could appeal the judgment. We have given you no specific instruction as to whether to proceed with the appeal. I would like to know where we stand at present on the matter.

Mayor Holm explained the board of arbitration met last fall and decided Lindsay's mill subsidy stay: Lindsay's Council decided to file an appeal with the Municipal Board. A joint meeting was arranged with county council; feeling expressed there was Lindsay should pay two mills subsidy result was the solicitor was asked to call off the appeal to a later date.

"The point is," he continued "the matter is left up in the air... Do you wish to bring the matter up again or leave it as it is?"

Mrs. F. J. Reed suggested a meeting of the town and county council. Councilor DeGroat favored this suggestion saying "as far as we are negotiating we are not forgetting. But this meeting is for the building up against a stone wall," he predicted.

Mayor Holm: "Did you ever hear of a rabbit negotiating with a fox?"

Deputy-Reeve Pinney expressed the opinion there was not much chance of Lindsay getting such consideration from county council.

Councillors Neil and McCord stated that chances were good.

Councilor DeGroat, addressing the Mayor: "Do you consider as a bunch of rabbits?"

Mayor Holm: "If the cap fits — wear it."

On Reeve Pinney's suggestion it was thought by Councilor DeGroat a good idea to meet members of county council in the spirit of good public relations and "extend the branch" first if it was intended the rabbits should meet the foxes."

Conciliator Hutton maintained advice on the next move should be taken from the solicitor. "I don't know what to do — do you," he asked the Mayor.

Mayor Holm: "Last year

Sunday movie vote coming in December

Lindsay voters will be asked to vote for or against Sunday movie on state liquor ordinance in the latest municipal election in the next December.

This was decided at the Tuesday county meeting, and was suggested in a letter to the mayor from manager A. J. Ferguson of the Century theatre.

All councillors present were in agreement that the people should vote on the option to prohibit movie on state liquor ordinance, but councillor Neil enquired as to the closing time. In other communities the time was set as from 1:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. The Mayor pointed out that before the bylaw gets its final reading, which must be at least two weeks before the municipal election, ample time would be provided to decide minutes details such as closing hours.

Councilor Hutton thought created before the council could be consulted before council decided on the matter so as to not jeopardize their position. Council voted in favour of the plebiscite.

Salvage dealers to meet with police committee

A meeting will take place on July 6th, between Lindsay salvage dealers and the police committee.

This was arranged when four salvage dealers approached council Tuesday in opposition to a bylaw in question, their yards should be fenced.

Cyril Gervais, of the Lion and Metal was spokesman for the other dealers, Bert Lowery, of Edgemoor Auto, have Brauer's Salvage and Wreckers, and Harry Groat of Greer Auto Parts, all residents in Lindsay.

Mr. Gervais pointed out that chief objection to the bylaw in question was the issue which states, "every salvage yard be enclosed with a board fence, all one color, etc."

"We see no reason why we should be put to the expense of a high tight board fence, high enough to cover our stock," said Mr. Gervais.

"The appearance of the grounds should not be objectionable. The police have visited us at times and we have asked to be given a list of stolen articles. We do not believe it necessary to find out the age of these things to us."

In answer to a query from Councilor Neil, Mr. Gervais replied Lindsay salvage dealers did not want a fence in any shape or form. "When established in 1951 I did not know my property would be attacked by a fence. It would cost a tremendous amount to fence my 3,000 feet of salvage property now. This applies more to wrecking lots than to yards."

Mayor Holm pointed out the bylaw was passed last year and the chief of police and chairman of the police committee informed the dealers of it.

Mayor Holm said the salvage dealers of the community would be well advised to be in line with the police committee. A report will be made back to council at the next meeting in July. Council is very anxious to become well-informed about this matter, he said.

Mr. Gervais: "Then we can assume there will be no reprisals if we don't comply with the bylaw regulations of having this fence in question created before the deadline of July 31st."

The mayor gave this assurance on behalf of council with the hope all salvage dealers would be at the Monday meeting.

White Club Club entertained by WI
Fenelon Falls (PNS) — The White Club Club of Victoria County was entertained by the Fenelon Falls WI at a dinner meeting held in the Lower Hall of the United Church, with 42 guests present. The table grace was by Mrs. M. Fisher.

Mrs. J. D. Thomson, president of the Institute, extended a gracious welcome to the guests and a short programme followed the dinner.

Arnold Pierce favoured with a delightful piano solo and Miss Dorothy Syre of Lindsay sang "Bless This House". A trio, Messrs. H. Neale, F. Fisher addressed the gathering giving a short but worthwhile message. Mrs. N. Tyndal, also accompanied by Arnold Pierce sang "My Task" and no other appropriate number. Mrs. A. W. McInnes gave two readings and Mrs. Randall of Lindsay, also gave two readings.

Pasture harrowing

A flexible chain harrow is one of the most valuable tools in pasture management, say forage experts with the Ontario Department of Agriculture. It must be remembered that manure from cattle on pasture can be either very valuable or very harmful to the pasture. Harrowing makes the difference for several reasons:
• by spreading the droppings, harrowing increases pasture yields. The plants use this fertility to produce more pasture.
• weed blurring and red top infestations are reduced by harrowing. Droppings that are not spread smooth the plants under them. The resulting bare patches then become filled with weeds and red top.
• more uniform grazing management program.

McKay-Ekins Nuptials

The marriage of Marjory Ekins, daughter of Mrs. Ekins and the late Howard Ekins, of Lindsay, to Russell McKay, son of Mrs. Donald Lindsay, of Wexham, Saskatchewan, and Mr. Norman McKay, of Wexham, Saskatchewan, was solemnized on June 2, 1962, in Queen Street United Church, Lindsay, by Rev. Ben Garrett.

The wedding music was played by Miss Anne Shier, niece of the bride, and soloist was Mrs. Barbara Agnew, who sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "O Perfect Love".

Given in marriage by her brother Earl Ekins, of Preston, Ontario, the bride wore a gown of pure silk organza with embroidered appliques of leaves edging the neckline. The pointed basket yoke upheld the full skirt, which was appliqued in satin with over a layer of scallops at front falling into a panel from at back. Her headpiece of satin sequins and pearls caught the full skirt, which was appliqued in satin with over a layer of scallops at front falling into a panel from at back. Mrs. F. J. Reed guest speaker at banquet

Woodville (PNS) — The feature of the June meeting of the Woodville United Church Women was a talk by Mrs. Fred Reed of Sunderland, on the subject, "Churches and Cathedrals of England". Mrs. Reed told of many fascinating features such as, stain glass windows, memorials to many famous people, fine tapestries, and her wonder at how such tremendous buildings could be built so many hundreds of years ago without the aid of heavy machinery.

Guests at the meeting were from Reed, Hartley, Sunderland and Schriberg.

Special music was supplied by Mrs. S. Hargrave and Mrs. C. Baker, and much enjoyed. Mrs. H. Campbell presented an inspiring devotional based on the theme, "The Church and its Mission".

A delicious lunch was served by Units two and five.

KLONDIKE GOLD-RUSH BANK, The first bank at Dawson, Yukon, in the gold rush of 1898, was a rough wooden, canvas-covered shack, and it has been recreated by the Bank of Montreal as part of the Dawson City Gold Rush Festival, which opened Sunday (July 1). The office was established by the bank of British North America, which later merged with the B of M. The first manager, David Dugg, and two clerks took 47 days to travel — by steamer, dogsled, pack-horn and canoe — the 1,500 miles from Vancouver to Dawson to set up the "sourdoughs' first bank. Present B of M manager, the whiskered Roy McPhail, who was elected first president of the Festival in 1960, is depicted here in the doorway of the tent-shack chatting with customers in period costume. Shown inset, he weighs gold dust on scales of the type used during the Klondike gold rush. The present B of M building, in the background, was erected in 1901 by big Alex McDonald, "King of the Klondike".

Figures relevant to-day by the Lindsay Branch of the National Employment Office, show a 25% increase in placements over the same period this time last year.

An official told "The Post," registered applicants to date are 595, as against 523 last year at this time. One of the reasons for this higher figure he said, was the great increase in registered students this year.

"More than three times as many students are registered now as were registered last year, owing to a drive we put on to encourage them to come here instead of going out, which has been their usual custom - looking for summer work. Previously, they were out on their own and, as a result, had more experience and eagerness, were sometimes disappointed. Horses and people don't make the news together very often nowadays . . . It's usually cars and people. The trend was broken momentarily last week when the prize-winning grey percheron team owned by Clarke Trenbly of Oakwood pulled a double buggy loaded with historical characters up Lindsay's Kent St. to the Victoria County Historical Day ceremonies at the exhibition grounds. Piloting the carriage was lawyer Jamie McQuarrie seen holding his daughter Patricia, who regards his regalizing with amused interest. Third picture from the left

The dwarf member of the horse family seen in the picture on the extreme right is the Shetland pony won by John Guse of 56 Simcoe St. He held the winning ticket in a free draw made to mark the official opening of Lindsay's newest auto parts depot—Motorcade Servicentre on Lindsay St. south. With the pony on the left is assistant store manager Cecil Carr. The pony's new owner places a possessive paw on its neck. The winning ticket was drawn by P. C. Ralph Fountain.

HOW FAR IN ARREARS SHOULD

TAXES BE ALLOWED TO GET?

How far in arrears should taxes be allowed to get before action is taken to collect them? This is a problem confronting many Canadian municipalities. It is a problem amounting to over $100-million on the books.

While it is obvious that unpaid taxes extending over a period of time necessitate that the rest of taxpayers virtually "pay for" the properties, it is a situation which calls for a fair handling if undue hardship is to be avoided. A blanket policy for collecting tax arrears would simply be the procedure but it also might work. Some municipalities have found that it is especially in these days when many people are forced to finance pretty close to the line) can upstage the family budget disastrously. There are other factors, such as a long period of unemployment, for example, which can place family finances in difficulty. In many instances these same people have worked hard, and have paid their own taxes and generally been good citizens. It would be unfair to deal ruthlessly with them under these circumstances.

Collection of tax arrears, and the method to be adopted, is probably always going to be a matter of consideration the circumstances surrounding each case. In any event, every effort should be made to avoid working an injustice and the aim should be to arrive at an amicable settlement.

THEY MADE A LASTING IMPRESSION....

Ontario's Lieutenant Governor, J. Keller MacKay and his charming wife made a lasting impression on the people of this area who were privileged to meet them during the occasion of their second formal visit to Lindsay.

Here for the official opening of the Victoria County Museum on Wednesday, their visit unquestionably made a lasting impression on the people of this community and the Queen's official representatives in Ontario. Readers will note that we refer to the lieutenant-governor and his wife as the "representative" whereas usually it is he who is the Queen's official agent. However, we believe there is more than a grain of truth to a remark, made here last night during the reception, that the lieutenant-governor by Victoria County Council, wherein he observed that he was once admonished not to get a swelled head because he had become lieutenant-governor of the province. "Remember," he was told, "you are only the husband of the wife of the lieutenant-governor." At another point he was paying tribute to the Hon. Leslie M. Fyfe and, doing so, complimented Mrs. Fyfe on the part she had played in his public life, observing "This iron hand in the velvet glove still prevails.... This is not unknown to me."

Aside from this, the visit gave people here an opportunity to get to know better the head of state in Ontario. They also met with what they regarded as a first class human person, possessed of great understanding, an eloquent speaker with a sincere manner, a well defined sense of humor and an able politician.

We believe visits of the kind paid Lindsay on Wednesday by Lieutenant-Governor MacKay will go a long way to strengthen Empire ties and respect for those in high office. Any who were prone to regard the lieutenant-governor as something of a figurehead playing a relatively passive part in the affairs of state will have undergone a change of heart since meeting him. In his view they perceived a vigorous man, a man with high ideals and the courage to voice them, a man devoted to encouraging his fellow men to aspire to lofty achievements and apply the necessary pioneering spirit and hard work so essential to attain them.

In Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Keller MacKay, Queen Elizabeth II is indeed well and capably represented in this province of Ontario.

BACK IN THE YEAR 1912....

Back in the year 1912.... and on many Dominion Days since then.... Lindsay did something to celebrate the birthday of the nation. For example, according to old newspaper files, the town took to the spirit of Dominion Day celebration on July 1st, 1912, with a callithumpian parade which included dozens of floats, bands and all those other things which go to make up such events, including a main street bedecked with flags.

In the year 1962, Dominion Day will probably go virtually unobserved in Lindsay.... There may be a few flags to be seen (one man said the other day he couldn't buy a medium size Union Jack or Canadian flag in town to save his life), but otherwise the day will come and go without fanfare.

Of all the anniversaries which should be observed throughout the country, Dominion Day deserves special recognition. It is the most important day in the history of Canada, the day when it was proclaimed a united nation. Certainly it is to leave to do anything about this year but it does seem that it is important to suitably mark the occasion for the first time in successive years. It is not too early, Salomonella, as determined by the official of many.

Consumers across Canada have been greatly concerned at the death of a child and the rising number of deaths. This is being attributed to Salmonella contamination in some cake mixes containing egg products.

A DANGEROUS INTERSECTION

The fatality which occurred Saturday night at the intersection of Kent and Lindsay Sts. serves to emphasize what has long been known, that this intersection is dangerous from the standpoint of the pedestrian, to say nothing of the motorist.

A pedestrian attempting to negotiate the intersection has traffic coming to him from six directions, left, right and straight. A driver, besides trying to cope with traffic, making left and right hand turns, has to keep a weather eye on the pedestrian.

In view of the latest incident at this intersection, we believe consideration should be given to at least eliminating left hand turns. This would give the pedestrian a fighting chance of surviving street crossings at this point and really should involve any hardship on the motorist.

Reports and Remarks...

"WHAT'S THE TROUBLE?"

Condensed from Good Housekeeping Stephen Leacock How trivial are the things we fuss about! I have known two professors of Greek who ceased speaking to each other because of divergent views on the pluperfect subjunctive. One of them said it didn't drop out of just because one could play better but the other claimed better.

I recall two old men who were bitter partisan opponents of Archie had been spoken to Sidney for ten years, no sire. Archie was a Gril and Sidney was a Tory. You don't know what that means, but then, neither did they. Anyway, they sat each morning in the country tavern with their newspapers. Each started a sideways campaign of sneers addressed to the room but intended for the other. "I see where some darn (old) of Tory's are." So it went on for years. Then one day I saw old Archie and Sidney's funeral, standing, shrunk and silent, his head shaking from side to side. They said at the next election his last had changed his mind.

So while there is what, let us realize how insignificant are these animosities—yet good fellows we are all really. I recall an English man with whom I shared the refrain "I'm all right when I think I'm right." We are all like that. I am sure I am, and I know it kindly that you are. You may look pretty disagreeable, but that's because you can't help it with that face of yours. Let people realize that it is only your face, that behind it you are all right.

And, mind you, we can do this if we try. Well, all of it at Christmas: we pretend to be such good fellows that somehow the whole world looks brighter for the pretence. For you see, it is the illusion that is the real reality. "All the world's a stage," as Shakespeare put it, or at least it could be if we set ourselves to make it so. Come, let us play actors and we should like to play them, each according to his true self.

Tell you why I want this reconstruction. I don't believe in armed and air. I believe in the laws and the compact, legislation and pledges, are worthless without the heart and spirit of the people. In the long run the world can move only with the spirit.

RECAPTURING THE PAST

For almost a quarter century Fort Henry, in Kingston, Ontario, has been one of the leading attractions for visitors to the Great Lakes. Located on a promontory just east of the city harbor, the fortress bristled with mounted cannon and is defended by all the paraphernalia of a 19th-century military installation. The Canadians have thrilled to the pomp and pageantry displayed by the famous Fort Henry Guard. In the colourful uniforms of 1867 the gardeners exhibit the fort and arms of the imperial garb who maintained the Fort and fire salutes from the 150-year old muzzle-loading cannon. This year the Fort is open daily from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. The season runs until September 16.

During its heyday the Fort was known as "The Citadel of the Great Lakes." Begun in 1812 it was built to defend against invading American forces during the War of 1812. From 1812 to 1891 the Fort was garrisoned by detachments from many famous British and Canadian regiments. During the intervening years between 1891 and 1896, the Fort fell into disrepair and the walls began to crumble. In 1936 the province of Ontario began a restoration program. On August 1, 1938, the renovated Fort was officially opened to the public. Today, its romantic cannons and ramparts vividly recall the story of Canada's past; there are collections of antique weapons, specialized collections of military, cavalry, artillery and naval arms and equipment, as well as refurbished living quarters.

DONT BE A CAMP LITTERBUG

Good campers leave campsites as neat as they found them. With more than 13,000 individual campsites available in 72 of Ontario's 80 Provincial Parks this summer, the Department of Lands and Forests is stressing the importance of taking full advantage of garbage disposal facilities provided, with special emphasis on the unpopularity of "litterbugs."

1. Properly dispose of garbage by placing in the containers supplied or burying in a hole.
2. Respect the rights of his fellow travellers.
3. Leave his campsite as clean or cleaner than he found it.
4. Leave a small supply of firewood for the next camper.
5. Treat all park buildings and equipment as he would his own personal property.

When in doubt, he asks the ranger in charge.

CAKE MIXES AND SALMONELLA

Just as in the Lindsay case to press we have learned of an amendment to the Food and Drug Regulations (Canada Gazette May 25th, Order-in-Council PC 1962-687). This amendment forbids the sale of any egg product for use as food unless it is free from the genus Salmonella, as determined by the official of many.

Consumers across Canada have been greatly concerned at the death of a child and the rising number of deaths. This is being attributed to Salmonella contamination in some cake mixes containing egg products.

CAC welcomes this new regulation. We hope that it will be strictly enforced with severe penalties, so that consumers can be assured of a food market free from Salmonella. CAC will continue to watch the action being taken to eliminate completely all contaminated foods from the marketplace.

BLEACH A BOLD MIXER

Household bleach, whatever the trade name, is a solution of sodium hypochlorite which will relax poisonous chlorine gas if mixed with any acid substance. Two recent cases illustrate this dramatically, where housewives were using a toilet bowl cleaner. Each lady added some bleach to the cleaner. One woman died within a few minutes, while the other recovered only after a long period of hospitalization and treatment.

The Ontario Safety League warns that cleaners, bleach or other acids should never be mixed with vinegar. Store them in separate places, and keep both away from food and medical supplies.

SUMMER DRIVING'S SPECIAL PROBLEMS

Summer driving, on vacation or everyday routine, can be enjoyable, claims the Canadian Highway Safety Council. Promoting its vacation-time program called Slow Down and Live, the Council offers these ideas for happier summer motoring:

Be calm. Take it easy. Let the hectic drivers go on their feverish ways. You'll arrive a few carlengths behind them, cool and at ease while their temperatures are high and nerves fraying.

On a trip, try different routes, main highways one way, secondary roads returning. Take time to explore the side roads, too. Some interesting things can be found off the beaten path.

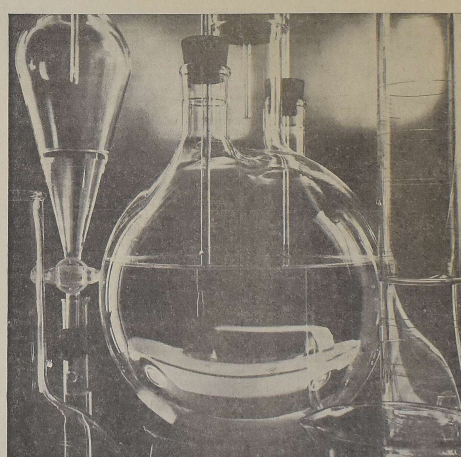

Don't be afraid of expressway highways. They may appear frazzled traffic lanes at first, but relax. Wait your chance to enter, match the speed of the other cars as soon as you can. If you want to drive more slowly, stay in the right hand lane. Always signal first when you change lanes. Plan ahead. Getting off an expressway is like getting out of a revolving door except that if you miss your exit you may have to drive 30 miles to the next one.

Take care of yourself. Your life and the lives of your passengers are in your hands. Stop often, at least every two hours or 100 miles. Rest well. Have a coffee, tea, or milk. Night is mainly natural time to sleep so drive in daylight, stop early, sleep quickly.

Take care of your car. No vehicle can care for itself. It's up to you to check lights, tires, horn, glass wipers, battery, steering regularly. Get to know your car and you'll sense anything wrong in the motor or equipment. Have it fixed NOW or it will fix you!

90% of all oil company product research in Canada

is done by Imperial

The fuels your car will use in the future are being designed today. In technology are working to ensure that tomorrow's fuels are cleaner and more efficient. This is why Imperial Oil is investing heavily in research and development to bring you the best gasoline quality.

At Imperial Oil's laboratories at Sarnia, Ontario, more than 200 scientists and technicians are working to improve gasolines produced or burned in the marketplace. Their research covers many fields, from new ones to household detergents. Another 130 scientists and technicians are working at Imperial's Calgary laboratories on ways to find and produce more Canadian crude oil and natural gas. Imperial has more research than all other oil companies in Canada combined.

MARTINI BEFORE DINNER? After Dr. Steincorn: That should help you make up your mind, and dissolve the confusion. Now, as for the Martini before dinner—that's entirely an another matter. Right off, and let I should forget about it. I would eat when I say "I'm in favor." From your letter I suspect that you are hungry. However, I never feel hungry enough to eat a past middle age. In my posture and my doctor suggest dry wine before dinner. It promotes relaxation, it promotes appetite as in your case, it should not partake of a drop of liquor.

Since my family doctor is not available, I have called up on another doctor for a check-up. He said that I did not need an operation on my prostate gland and that I should "by all means" have a drink before dinner if it improves my eating. I would like very much to have your opinion on these matters, Mr. S.

Comment: I can't advise you one way or another about this to do about your prostate. This is a letter to the editor, not a medical consultation. Dear Dr. Steincorn: I'm 77 years of age and except for pains here and there, due to one doctor said, to "wear and tear," I am in good health for my age. But I have an ever-present apprehension of losing my mind as I grow older. This fear is heightened, I think, by the fact that my

STOP!... killing yourself

By Peter A. Steinhorn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

IT SEEMS TO ME "Shall I study medicine?" I receive many letters from young high school students—and even from some in the lower grades—who want to know the answer. I wish I could make one blanket statement that would cover all the rest, each individual needs an answer of his own.

Are you interested in how much money you can make? Then better choose something else. I think it's true that if anyone with half-way decent sense worked around the clock for money in any other business, and put as much money into as you have to these days to get a medical degree, he'd make much more than he could with the same effort in medicine. Forget about the doctors who ride around in high-priced cars and have summer homes, and remember that there are many in the profession who work hard to pay off their mortgage and drive an old car.

But let's suppose you're especially interested in leading a dedicated life. You want to help people. When you see suffering, something in you wells up to try to help. Then, I think medicine is for you. You often thanked the late that derived that I'd be a family variety of pains. The doctor examines them and they can't find a physical reason why they don't feel as well as the others.

Recent studies have shown that people who are easily depressed are the ones who are pressed a long time to recover from illness. This is another example of emotions having marked effect upon physical well-being.

Whenever I get tied up in traffic behind a large bus or other car emitting gaseous fumes, I say to myself that every day, in the large cities of the U.S., thousands of innocent citizens are being exposed to irritants and poisons of which they are not aware.

For example, consider Los Angeles. According to a report put out by the magazine "Patterns of Disease," there is what happens in one day in Los Angeles, where the wastes of autos have got in their dirty work. In 24 hours they emit 945 tons of hydrocarbons, 250 tons of nitrogen oxides, 19 tons of sulfur dioxide, 6,840 tons of carbon monoxide and 27 tons of aerosols.

It is not necessary to explain the effects of each contaminant, except to say that taken together they most certainly must have something to do with bronchitis, lung cancer and other respiratory ailments. I am happy that at last, scientists are working to discover some way to neutralize most of these air pollutants. The solution can't wait. (Released by the Bell Syndicate Inc.)

Summer is here, and the living definitely will be easy, as well as cool. Manufacturers have come up with some ideas to make warm weather pleasant and fun. The summer-time drivers who don't have air conditioning in his car will welcome a special type of seat which acts like a bellows to circulate cool air around him. The so-called "space seat" is made of woven fibre and polyethylene with an uncovered back. Another version is that of the "breath-easy chair" features a fan that reportedly provides a two-in-one-hour breeze around the driver. The plugs into the cigarette lighter.

Simple, Easy
Outdoor meals can be simple and easy to prepare with the combination "fire in wagon". The rooftop cast measure an ample 20 by 40 inches and holds an adjustable grill. There also is a built-in chest which is claimed to keep contents cool for 48 hours. A lower shelf has space for dishes and accessories.

Fresh, Cool
Salads can be kept fresh and cool with a new salad material with a frosty texture that looks like fresh wood, but actually is a foamed plastic core filled with smooth, non-cellular skin.

This construction has insulating properties, as well as abrasion and shock resistance.

SUMMERTIME DRINKS
There are a host of places for summertime drinks. It's the chill master. The counter-top unit chills and frosts 12 glasses at once. Drinks keep original strength, without being diluted.

BEAUTY TIP
Before applying makeup hair should be tied back with a strip of cotton gage. This insures smooth application of makeup around the airline.

Yesterday three supporters of the doctors sought a court injunction to halt the Medicare plan. The appeal was postponed for a week on the grounds that the medicare situation may be somewhat different by then.

Getting ready for holidays, daughter hurt, car damaged

Wendy Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Brooks, of Lindsay, was admitted to Ross Memorial Hospital on Tuesday suffering from slight concussion and lacerations to the face following a fall from a bicycle near her home.

Mrs. Brooks told "The Post" her daughter said she had changed bikes with a friend and had fallen off. "She seemed alright when she first came in," she said, "but after a while began to get sleepy. The side of her face was scratched and bruised, so we took her to the hospital for X-ray and they found bruises on her head and told us there was a 'slight concussion'."

They were just getting ready for their holidays, she added, and last week her husband's car was damaged by a hit-and-run driver.

"It seems as if we are not supposed to go away," she said.

IT COULD HAPPEN on YOUR VACATION

Smart burglars make hay in vacation time. They choose homes that look vacant; pilfer at their leisure. When you leave on vacation keep a couple of small lamps burning; stop milk and paper deliveries. And, most important make sure your possessions are protected with a blanket burglary insurance policy. It costs so little.

Piano recital

Sunderland (PNS)—A very pleasant and memorable evening was spent at Wick Presbyterian Church by a very large crowd when the pupils of Mrs. Ann Wallace A.T.C.M. R.M.T. presented their piano recital.

The younger children played their selections with great care, fine expression and lovely hand position.

As the programme progressed it was gratifying to see how each pupil had progressed during the year.

The senior pupils are to be congratulated on the very fine playing of their selections.

Lois Faux and Larry Johnson who have acquired Grade VIII passed their numbers beautifully. Lois played "The Rising Sun" with great feeling and Larry's rendition of "Sonata in C" was very inspiring.

The final number was "Sonata Op. 14, No. 2" played by Elizabeth Coates, who has been delighted her audience with her beautiful interpretation.

A delightful little guest was Julie Beaton, six year old granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace who played her songs so nicely.

Mary Hadden sang a solo "Pretty Polly Oliver" accompanied by Mrs. Wallace which was much appreciated by all. Marion and Shirley Taylor presented their paper with a gift from the Pope with a tribute for her guidance, patience and help.

There are mixed feelings as to the effect of the devaluation of the Canadian dollar on the tourist trade in this area.

"The devalued dollar is bringing more American business to Canada and keeping Canadians buying in their own country. In short it is a good thing for Canada as it was meant to be".

This opinion was expressed by Paul Rose, Assistant Manager of Zeller's Ltd., Lindsay store. He said there were always shoppers an 8% premium on every American dollar. "We are pleased and the tourists are happy" he added.

"Last week when I visited along the American border the Americans discounted my Canadian money at the rate of three cents off every quarter and the off every dollar," he further related.

William Wagg, proprietor of Beal Jewellers, says his store is allowing an 8% premium on every American dollar. Although the exchange rate has fluctuated to a seven and five-eighths level lately.

"If the devalued dollar is bringing more American trade to Canada, American shoppers are getting a better bargain in goods with the imposing of tariffs on many imported U.S. goods."

It would seem to be a vicious circle when no one gets a better bargain.

Ron Knapp, Manager of the A & P store, stated his store is allowing a 10% premium on every American dollar.

From the office of Clarence Deegan, War Store at Lindsay, it was learned that the per annum of 7% is now being paid for American goods. Previously it had been paid on each American dollar.

Without much fanfare

Without much fanfare, the Lindsay baseball team is holding its first game in the Independent Baseball League.

The team won its last game against Sunderland last Wednesday night. The team will be in first class place for the next game on Wednesday.

Fans who had patronized the last game were surprised and pleased to see that stadium seats have been repaired and that the stadium fence is also being repaired. The grounds are in very good shape.

Makes donation ere departure

Before leaving with the Kinmen Band for the Calgary Stampede, Mayor J. C. Holton made a large contribution to the Town treasury.

His Warship was parked long in front of Parkland Drug Store and as a result, the Kinmen Band had to park in front of the drug store. "Oh well, I guess the town needs the money, but I'll have to park in front of the drug store," he observed as he prepared to pay up.

...and in a tangle situation that for the trip.

NOTICED ...along the way

The sudden passing of Mr. William Spier at his residence in Lindsay, has shocked the community.

The late Mr. Spier was in his 40th year and was the eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Spier.

He was born and raised in Haliburton and spent all his life here. He had been in several months and in the hospital with a heart condition.

Mr. Spier was a very quiet man. He was always at home when not working and was popular among the men he worked with.

Flowers sent from friends and relatives were beautiful and in abundance showing the high esteem in which he was held.

In the light of such forthright statements as this, contained in a publication being circulated in Canada, Mr. Harris says he fails to see how anyone can seriously doubt that we are extremely active in our cell is operating under the protective cover of the very thing it would destroy.

On the subject of receiving publicity... three of a more acceptable nature have come from that Canadian outpost... take a catnap.

A Lindsay man is on the mailing list of a periodical and he doesn't know who got it. He is a fan of the Lindsay baseball team. He is in first class place for the next game on Wednesday. He is a fan of the Lindsay baseball team. He is in first class place for the next game on Wednesday.

Sees little chance of water ration for Lindsay

The chances of a water shortage for Lindsay residents this year, aren't considered great by the Water Board.

Superintendent Reynolds said "The Post" that the use of Willowsdale and Alice D. Water works, four grand old water towers, an increase in water users and the combined war with lack of rain. "I don't think there is much danger at present of having to ration it, but a good three to four days rain would certainly help the situation, especially in the surrounding rural areas." he concluded.

FIRST CERTIFIED NURSING CLASS GRADUATES FROM ROSS MEMORIAL

"It would like to congratulate you all, and I am proud of them," said the speaker. "You are all successful. Without nurses, our country would indeed be hard."

Dr. R. J. Watson of the Ross Memorial Hospital said that the first class of the nursing school, which was held at the hospital, was a great success. The graduates were all very capable and hardworking.

Speaking briefly, as a representative, Miss J. H. MacKay, Peterborough, said that the graduates were all very capable and hardworking. She also mentioned the success of the nursing school.

He hoped that they would bring not just their training but also their spirit to the hospital in the recognized and distinguished manner.

Speaking for the whole staff by their white smocks, the graduates of the hospital, I would like to say to you, we are very proud of you. The graduates were all very capable and hardworking.

Among those present was a pair of green narrow band on the cap. The graduates were all very capable and hardworking.

Mrs. J. B. Burn presides for UCW meeting

The meeting opened with a prayer by the president, Mrs. J. B. Burn. The meeting was held in the hall of the Lindsay branch of the United Canadian Women's Union.

Legality of part bottle of liquor in glove compartment raised

It was clear of legal minds caused during the week when the magistrate and some building houses in the immediate area of the town.

The regular branch of the United Canadian Women's Union held its monthly meeting on Friday night. The meeting was held in the hall of the Lindsay branch of the United Canadian Women's Union.

The magistrate Moore felt it was against the law to have an open bottle of liquor in the glove compartment, and stated to his own uncertainty.

Mr. Cunningham countered by reading a portion of the act which he interpreted did not mention anything about men being illegal to carry unopened portions of liquor in a glove compartment.

"These laws are set by the legislature and are clearly stated," he said. The magistrate felt it was against the law to have an open bottle of liquor in the glove compartment, and stated to his own uncertainty.

SMELL BAD TOPS BRASS COMPETITION

Win $150 cash and new trophy

"It was worth it" NOTICED... along the way

The second chapter of "Calgary Diary" is a triumphant one... The band achieves its cherished goal of winning a trophy it had set its sights on long before leaving Lindsay.

Read all about it in this first-hand account of the affair.

It was worth it. Every backbreaking hour of... The marching practice. The rummage sales, bake sales, and all the meetings. The Lindsay Kinmen Band was awarded $150 and first prize for brass bands on basis of playing, marching, appearance, etc. Every facet of band participation was noted on the award. And Lindsay won it... deservedly.

Woodville WI June meeting

Woodville (PNS) — The June meeting of Woodville W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Percy Hill with 27 members present and the president Mrs. A. Canning in the chair.

The meeting opened in the usual manner. This was followed by a verse from an old school reader. The attendance prize was won by Mr. O. Lamb.

Several thankful notes were read including some from the Cancer Society, the Couples' Club and Mrs. P. Hill also thanked the W.I. for a gift received the week previously when she and Mr. Hill celebrated their Golden Wedding. Mrs. A. Canning and Mrs. F. Day were appointed to take the Extension Course on Home Nursing which will be given in Lindsay in the fall.

Mrs. O. Lamb had charge of the program and gave a reading of "Reminiscence on the theme of old songs which included "Put on Your Old Gey Bonnet", "The Day Old Wines", and "The Day Old Wines".

Mrs. Canning thanked the committee for their pro-gram and Mr. Hill for the use of her home.

The meeting closed with the "We're Warranted" and the Queen.

A dainty lunch was served by the committee in charge.

People really love a parade... All the women seen in the photo above will vouch for that. Veterans Orangethumb Group's unfortunate experience with the Golden Wedding Saturday's show as did the brother and sister (John and Jill Kinross of Lindsay) at the corner of highways 500 and 121 and finding the accused car, hanging by guy wires, completely off the ground. Three highway signs broken, and just a few feet away from a sheer drop of 25 feet.

He further stated that liquor had smelled of liquor and was very unsteady on his feet. The accused told officer that the brakes had failed and on checking them the officer found no pressure.

Lloyd Bane, police officer from Fenelon Falls, told of going to the assistance of Const. Plunette.

When asked by the Crown what he had seen, the officer testified Const. Plunette's evidence, also stating that the other three passengers in the car had seemed to him to be drunk.

No evidence could be produced as to what time the accident happened, causing the Magistrate to ask why one of the passengers had not been brought in to give evidence.

"I will not bring in a witness who has been in the car in a matter of minutes the Attorney General "as they all say the driver was conscious... They can't be trusted," he added.

Defense counsel M.J. Cunningham said there was no evidence of when the accident happened or that his client had been drinking at the time. He made the case for the lack of evidence the

Three generations in the lodge

Reborn 1820 is one of the few Orange Lodges that can boast a three-generation membership from one family. They are seen on the left as they appeared at the celebration here Saturday. Left to right they are Thomas H. Reeds, in his 80th year, 66 present in Orange; John Douglass Reeds, his grandson who in his first year and his father, Stanley T. who has been in the lodge for 29 years.

A sad note was injected into what started out to be a happy experience for a Lindsay woman. Mrs. Carl Price of Victoria Ave. N. had just barely arrived in Calgary to witness the Kinmen Band's part in the parade. Mrs. M. Staples contacted Stampede when she had to return home... Her father, Harold Staples, died unexpectedly Monday afternoon.

The sad news was relayed to Mrs. Price by her husband who remained in Lindsay and the left Calgary at 2 a.m. today arriving home at 8 a.m.

Mr. Staples was found slumped near his front steps broken, and just a few feet away from a sheer drop of 25 feet.

He further stated that liquor had smelled of liquor and was very unsteady on his feet. The accused told officer that the brakes had failed and on checking them the officer found no pressure.

Father dies unexpectedly, flies home from Stampede

Harold Staples had been a partner with his father, the late Joseph Staples, in a grocery store business at the corner of King and St. Peter streets for many years.

On the death of the elder Staples, Mr. Staples contacted Stampede when she had to return home... Her father, Harold Staples, died unexpectedly Monday afternoon.

The sad news was relayed to Mrs. Price by her husband who remained in Lindsay and the left Calgary at 2 a.m. today arriving home at 8 a.m.

Could still have summer theatre, Toronto playhouse offers services

Lindsay could still have summer theatre if it wished. The Village Playhouse, 49 Lapointe St., Toronto, has written "The Post" to say it is offering its services in the wake of the Little Theatre Group's unfortunate experience with the Golden Wedding.

The letter reads: "The Village Playhouse and Centre Stage, Toronto's two summer theatres, have co-operated by offering the communities of Cobourg, Peterborough and Lindsay, who were to be served summer theatre for by the now disbanded Summer Theatre '62, their Toronto production amounting to seven days.

"The Centre Stage company would tour their four production, starting next Wednesday with The Vinegar Tree, and the people of Cobourg, Lindsay and Peterborough want summer theatre, these two Toronto companies will supply it."

Good news for motorists!

Gas prices lowered

Its good news for motorists town highway stations and other dealers in Peterborough and neighboring towns.

"Our company was willing to subsidize us for the difference," he said, "so my customers shouldn't bring the prices in line."

"After all," he added, "Lindsay seemed to be the only one in the area with standard gas-going for 40.9 cents when others were selling it for 36.9 in some cases, is 38.9."

DRUG ERRORS

Dear Dr. Steinhilber: Every once in a while my doctor prescribes phenobarbital for my tics. Lately I have noticed that my skin breaks out and itches after I have taken a few tablets. They never bothered me before. Is it possible that these pills are causing my skin trouble? — Mrs. M.

Comment: What we often overlook — doctors and patients included — is that any drug may cause an eruption. Sometimes there is a sensitive patient who just can't take it.

Think of the millions of people who take aspirin for years without any trouble, yet there are those who will bleed or get other severe reactions after one or two pills.

Millions take penicillin without reactions, yet there is the minority who have it, and over, and in some cases, even endanger their lives by taking it.

But these are only two examples. As I said, my drug is liable to cause skin reactions — anywhere from simple itching to severe blisters, hives, rashes and alterations.

By Peter J. Steinhilber, M.D., F.A.C.P.

If you are sensitive to certain medicines, you can get a reaction from eating capers which were fed these horses from penicillin in milk, from preservatives or additives found in various kinds of food, medicines and drink.

Common troublemakers in addition to those I have mentioned are sulfonamides, penicillins, barbiturates and drugs which are commonly used to lower temperature (antipyretics). You may get skin reactions from gold treatments in arthritis, from griseofulvin in treating fungus — from practically any drug you can name that you take for a headache, laxative, tonic or other common remedy known to most households.

If the patient has a skin eruption of unknown origin, and he has been taking a variety of drugs, the doctor must look on the diagnostic trail and determine which drug — if any — is the cause. Withdrawing the drug will usually clear up the skin irritation after a while. Sometimes the doctor prescribes treatment to help this along, like wet dressings, special local applications and so forth.

antihistamines, and, occasionally, corticosteroids. Always be suspicious of drugs as a cause of skin inflammation which seems to come from nowhere.

Dear Dr. Steinhilber: I have bumps on my finger joints. I also have arthritis of my hands. I am 50 and otherwise well. Will you explain these bumps or enlargement? — Mrs. W.

Comment: If your trouble is osteoarthritis, these swellings in your finger joints are probably what we call Heberden's nodes.

Dear Dr. Steinhilber: What is meant by an auricle and a ventricle? — Mr. T.

Dear Dr. Steinhilber: I have bumps on my finger joints. I also have arthritis of my hands. I am 50 and otherwise well. Will you explain these bumps or enlargement? — Mrs. W.

Comment: If your trouble is osteoarthritis, these swellings in your finger joints are probably what we call Heberden's nodes.

Dear Dr. Steinhilber: What is meant by an auricle and a ventricle? — Mr. T.

Comment: A condition in which the upper and lower teeth do not meet properly. (Released by the Red Syndicate Inc.)

Town decides to try new "extra mil" approach

Lindsay council, Tuesday evening, decided to try a new approach to the abolishment of the mill rate which it will pay to the High School Area Board. On suggestion of Mayor Holmes, the representative of the town will visit each township council in the area to discuss the matter. Mayor Holmes will be an endeavor "to find out where we stand on the one mill subsidy", stated Mayor Holmes.

Jasper Fournier, well-known in the history of the one mill subsidy was suggested by Reeve Fournier as the logical representative who could attend council meetings of the various municipalities, perhaps also taking two or three members of Lindsay council with him. "Mr. Fournier", he said, "in discussing the matter has indicated his willingness to represent Lindsay in such an undertaking."

Leading up to the above suggestion, Reeve Fournier stated, as agreed, he had obtained the thinking of various representatives on a review of Lindsay of the one mill subsidy. "One stated it did not appear to me that the mill should stay another it should be wiped off and others that a reprieve should be granted in amounts of $5,000 up to $15,000, the first being what the mill amounted to when the subsidy was first instituted and the latter amount of what it is today."

It was not apparent to me that holding would be gained between town and county councils at the court house," he said. "This council and the various municipalities. If we would visit each township council involved, we would get a realistic of some kind. We could ask the opinion on whether the proposal of the subsidy should be continued. We would have a better chance of success by talking this way and getting two sides of the coin."

Reeve Fournier expressed the opinion that the various boards concerned would see that services required, would be installed in time. He said he did not think the industrial commission should be tied down to certain costs in selling land to prospective industry. The commission should be allowed certain leeway," he said.

Mayor Holmes, "I think Mr. Graham, the industrial commissioner, should spend some time with the town engineers in the matter of selling industrial leeway," he said.

Reeve Fournier, "I don't think Harryette, 21, of Peterboro was given two years suspended sentence in court here last week in connection with the same offences."

Ex-chief's pension reinstated at $700
The pension of Ex-Chief Ralph Lawley of Lindsay has been reinstated to the amount of $700 to be paid in monthly payments, retroactive to October 1961. So council decided Tuesday.

On the attainment of old age pension status by Mr. Lawley, Lindsay council had reduced his former pension of $1,000 to $500.

Mr. Lawley, after negotiating with the town, outlined the reduced pension, taking the matter to Ossonge Hall.

My feeling is we will have to go to the source."

SEIZES POWER
A military group has seized power over the Peruvian Government in a bloodless coup and deposed President Manuel Prado. The National radio which is controlled by the army said the group of military leaders will be sworn in today as the nation's new governing body. The radio said the country is calm. The broadcast gave as the reason for Prado's overthrow "A fraud in the electoral process" in the Peruvian Presidential election June 10th. Early today, army tanks and armored cars moved in and surrounded the presidential palace in Lima, and Prado was reported to have been taken away from the palace under guard. There has been no word as to where Prado was taken, but one report said he had been "taken into custody".

REJECTS PLEA
Israel's highest court has rejected a plea by convicted Soviet spy Dr. Robert Soblen that he be freed in England or some other country to dodge a life sentence in the U.S. Soblen, a Soviet spy, says he will appeal and the court gave them 15 days to file such action. The court did not know whether Soblen would be sent back to the U.S. Soblen jumped last month in New York City when he was due to start a life sentence and was found a few days later in Tel Aviv, Israel. He was promptly deported.

MEET WITH GOVERNMENT
Saskatchewan's striking doctors meet the Socialist Government of the province this afternoon. The occasion is the government's party convention at Saskatoon. The meeting marks the first time the two sides have met face to face since the doctors refused to practice July 1st because of the government's new medicare plan.

PREPARE FOR RECONCILIATION
Although both sides in the doctor's strike appear prepared for reconciliation, Dr. Lord Taylor is in the province to study the medicare situation and report to Premier Woodrow Lloyd. And Lloyd last night announced that he is prepared to meet with the doctors. He said he would name a one-man Royal Commission which will study charges that the Saskatchewan doctors are harassing doctors attempting to work under the medicare plan.

THREE COUNTS
Police in Toronto are holding 20-year-old Norman Swanson on three counts of shooting after three women were wounded within half an hour of each other yesterday. The women, walking along streets in West-Central Toronto, were unaware they were being shot at until hit. Their ages were 22, 70 and 30.

PICTURE IMPROVES
The Bureau of Statistics has announced that Canada's unemployment picture improved in June. There was a decrease of 35-thousand from the figures for May. On June 23rd four-point-five per cent of Canada's labor force was unemployed, compared with five-point-one a year earlier. Total unemployment amounted to 303-thousand persons out of a work force of six-and-a-half-million.

NAKKE WAGES
Rescue parties are making their way to mountainous country in Central South Viet Nam where the wreckage of a U.S. Air Force Transport plane missing since Sunday has been spotted. There has been no indications as to whether any aboard, including four Americans, survived. The scene of the crash is a Communist-controlled area about 115 miles north of Saigon from where the transport took off.

Former Oakwood girl enjoys delightful West Coast trip

A former Oakwood girl and while in Calgary, they were joined by Mrs. Bradfield's daughter, Marilyn Ruth of Edmonton General Hospital, who accompanied them to the St. Elmo Mark, now evening superior at Burnaby's Hotel, out with a left leg back to the trip, Toronto, was chosen to attend the Canadian Nurses Association convention in Vancouver and took her daughter Susan along for the trip. The trip was rounded off by a visit to the city where they enjoyed three wonderful days around Banff and Lake Louise, visiting such beautiful spots as Emerald Lake, Moraine Lake and the Columbia Ice Fields. They resumed their trip to the coast on the CPR crack "Canadian", from which they viewed the breathtaking mountain scenery.

Following Mrs. Bradfield's week at the convention, she and her daughter travelled by boat to Victoria where they attended a garden tea given for the nurses attending the convention by the Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Parkies. While in Vancouver Island City, they visited the famous Butchart Gardens, Madame Tussaud's Wax Museum and other places of interest. They then continued on to Seattle, Washington, where they attended the World's Fair and enjoyed such things as a ride on the much publicized monorail and a trip to the top of the space needle. Flying from Seattle to Calgary, they spent four days attending the Calgary Stampede.

IT COULD HAPPEN on YOUR VACATION

Smart burglars make hay in vacation time. They choose homes that look vacant; pilfer at their leisure. When you leave on vacation keep a couple of small lamps burning; stop milk and paper deliveries. And, most important make sure your possessions are protected with a blanket burglar insurance policy. It costs so little.

Anne Marie Graham feted prior to marriage

The spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Graham was the scene of a very happy event, when a host of friends from Ottawa, Lindsay, Resbora, Toronto, Cambridge and Bay of Quinte gathered with the Brysons' community to honour their daughter, Anne Marie, prior to her marriage to Robert A. Wilson of Ottawa.

Anne Marie, taken by surprise was ushered into the fully decorated living room, where two little friends dressed as bride and groom, drew with a wagon load of parcels. A brief address was read by Shirley Baile, and as the bride-to-be received her gifts, she was assisted by young friends. Numbering among the beautiful gifts of crystal, china, linen and electrical ware, was a pair of set tables and two sets of Blue Mountain pottery, the gift of the Cambray community.

Anne Marie very ably expressed her thanks to all her friends for their kindness. While small refreshments were served, many of the guests renewed old friendships, and a very happy evening closed with wishing the bride-to-be every happiness.

Stovell family honored prior to departure

At a pleasant luncheon held in the Sunday School Hall the Stovell family were honoured by the congregation of Cambridge Street Baptist Church prior to their departure to their new home in St. Thomas.

Rev. P. C. Reed, pastor emeritus, gave thanks for the food. Very excellent speeches were made by Mr. Keith Morden as Master of Ceremonies and by Mr. Robert Puffer as chairman of the Board of Deacons. Mrs. Stovell and daughters Velda and Karen were presented with corsages and Mrs. Stovell also a sheaf of pink carnations. Mr. Puffer made the presentation to Mr. Stovell of a substantial sum of money on behalf of the congregation as a token of love and esteem.

The pastor and his wife both replied in terms of affection and appreciation. Previous presentations included a gift to Mrs. Stovell from the Women's Association at a meeting at Mrs. S. R. Pitts Pleasant Point cottage, a gift to Karen by the Junior choir at a party held in the Sunday School Hall and gifts to Mrs. Stovell and her daughter Dan by the Senior Choir at a party held at the home of the church organist and choir director, Mr. Keith Morden and Mrs. Morden, Adelaide Street N.

WATER SERVICE ESTIMATE MEETS WITH OPPOSITION

The matter of installation of water service in the north-eastern section of Lindsay has met with a snag.

When the 16 property owners involved learned of the cost to them of the installation many were opposed. This cost of about 22 cents per foot frontage for 20 years was considered by some with large frontages as prohibitive.

Town Clerk Bates said he had notified the persons concerned and three in answer had been in opposition and two in favor of the installation at the 22 cents per foot figure.

A revised estimate of the services by Superintendent Reynolds had placed the total cost at $18,590.70. This was a reduction of about $3,000 on the first estimate, based on more St. George St. installation.

The total cost to the 16 property owners would be $7,000 and to the corporation $11,590.70, it was pointed out. Letters from the property owners will be held in abeyance until next council meeting.

Councillor MacCallister said he had heard there was a second petition coming in from these property owners to stop the installation of water services.

WARNER SUBDIVISION GIVEN BOARD'S TENTATIVE OKAY

Tentative approval by a marginal 2-1 vote was given on the new proposed subdivision at a special planning board meeting Tuesday afternoon.

Attended by members of the board, Mayor Holton, Assessor Toffenham, City Engineer Newbigging, and Engineer Booth, it was soon in evidence that the plan was favored by two of the members.

Asked by Chairman Platt as to the feasibility of the subdivision in relation to sewers, the engineer felt that there should be no problem in providing proper sewers in that area.

Concern was voiced over the immediate vacant property to the east of the subdivision, by two of those present, but the majority felt there need not be too much concern over it at the present time. Mayor Holton favored the plan and asked the members to vote on it.

Mr. DeGroat was not satisfied as he felt the plan was not suited to the surrounding area. It is not the best of planning, I will admit," said the mayor, "but I think under the circumstances there should be a compromise."

Dr. Peter Gill also agreed with Mr. DeGroat and said he should be no problem in providing having to occupy the plan.

It was decided to okay the plan subject to the council's approval and two of the members were asked to check into some of those present, but the

New Star Spangled Banner presented to Kiwanians

A feature of the weekly last summer.

Kiwanian luncheon Tuesday was the presentation of a beautiful star-spangled banner to the Club by Past President Frank Baker of the Kiwanis Club of Transcona, Pa. U.S.A. In doing so the speaker mentioned the friendly relations existing between the Transfer Club and the Lindsay Club and the presentation of the flag to the group.

King Solomon, King David and King Saul. As he cited how the flag is made, the speaker told of the 87 billion dollars to construct, how it lasted for over 400 years and then completely disappeared, the speaker asked his audience to consider the cost of building such a structure today with its materials and furnishings.

President A. Patterson accepted the flag and Past Governor John Moore made the acceptance speech and in doing so referred to the visit of the Transfer Club to Lindsay Past Pres. Richard, who has been a summer guest at the beautiful Red Lodge, Salisbury, for 18 years has maintained a perfect record of attendance in Windsor, Ontario. He presented an unusual type of address as he told the history of the group.

King Solomon, King David and King Saul. As he cited how the flag is made, the speaker told of the 87 billion dollars to construct, how it lasted for over 400 years and then completely disappeared, the speaker asked his audience to consider the cost of building such a structure today with its materials and furnishings.

President A. Patterson accepted the flag and Past Governor John Moore made the acceptance speech and in doing so referred to the visit of the Transfer Club to Lindsay

Problem for a decorator?

Pondering color scheme for junk yard fences

Lindsay's Council has run up against a decorating problem — how to get a nice color scheme on junk yard fences.

The matter of the colour painting of junk yard fences has held up the amendment to the by-law re the fencing of such properties.

Police Chairman Robert Payton proposed an amendment to the salvage yard by-law wherein the fence to enclose same was to be constructed of boards not less than four inches in width with spacing not greater than one inch, the painting to be all one color.

Councillor MacCallister objected to the one color stipulation, but was assured it meant a uniform color for each yard.

Councillor Neil interjected some might wish post and boards to be different colors. Decision was to leave the details to the next meeting when Councillor MacCallister would bring in his suggested amendment re the fence color. This could be included in that re the board construction.

The annual reunion of the descendants of Thomas and Margery Sher was again held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sher, Cambray.

This is the third year this reunion has been held at the home where the Sher family of eight children was raised. The eldest of this family, the late D. P. Sher of Lindsay, who passed way last August, was sadly missed this year. The only surviving member of the original family, Mrs. J. C. Murchison of Toronto, was present together with grandchildren, their wives, husbands and families.

Following an afternoon of games and sports and a sumptuous supper provided by those present, a short business meeting was held. Arthur Sher, who was elected President three years ago, chose to resign and Kenneth Sher was named President for the ensuing year with Marjorie Bell as Vice President and Wilfred French continuing as Secretary Treasurer.

It was decided to hold an other reunion next year and Arthur Sher again invited the family to his home.

Can't hurry

"There is a lot of work to be done before we can rezone an area," protested one of the members.

It will take at least ten days in the immediate area, which is part of the procedure," said Assessor Toffenham. Two members were asked to investigate as soon as possible and report to a special meeting.

Fire starts in pines, brigade saves the day

Minden Fire Chief Eldon Beaton and his men are credited with curbing what might have developed into an uncontrollable fire it was learned.

The fire, which destroyed part of a growth of pines, on Jack's property, started about 2 p.m. Sunday, and only for the quick action of the Minden fire department could have swept into a grove of homes nearby, destroying thousands of dollars worth of property.

Most dog owners co-operating with bylaw, chief says

There are a number of dog owners who are disregarding the law in Lindsay and as a result their dogs, running wild, are either picked up by the bylaw enforcement officers or charged are laid.

So stated Police Chief John Hunter in answer to a query as to what the dog situation is in town at the present time.

"On the whole most dog owners are co-operating well," he knew for a fact there are not so many dogs running loose around my home at night. My garbage pail is not so frequently soiled by the early frequenting but during the last spring. Perhaps the biggest offenders are those who let their dogs go for a little run early in the morning or late at night, thinking they are not so far from home and they can do no harm and no one can see them.

"There is also a belief against disturbance caused by barking dogs," the Chief fur further advised.

Minor mishaps

Lindsay O.P.P. designated two minor accidents over the weekend with slight damage and no injuries.

An Onsenie man, Robert Mitchell, was the driver of a car involved in a near accident near Onsenie at Highway curve early Saturday.

A car driven by John Holt of Willowdale was slightly damaged when it went out of control as the driver attempted to avoid hitting a dog.

This accident occurred Friday night near Poole's Corner, on Highway 35.

Hit-run accident

Lindsay O.P.P. are investigating a hit-run accident involving a car owned by Rita Lele of Little Britain.

Police say the accident happened near highway 36 and 78 about 4 a.m. Saturday when the Lele car was struck by a west bound vehicle.

Const. Robert B. McGregor is investigating.

Fight blaze eight hours

Damage estimated at about $5,000 was caused when a fire broke out in the Dominion hotel in Minden.

Fire Chief Eldon Beaton told "The Post" his department answered a call at 7:30 Sunday evening to the hotel to find the upper part of the building on fire.

A fireman brigade fought the fire for over eight hours, said, before bringing it under control.

Owner of the hotel, Steve Restal, told "The Post" that the chief and his men did a "fine job."

"It prevented what could have been a real bad fire," he said, "the fire was still in the new frame, I could have been out of business very quickly."

"It could have started from a cigarette that had fallen into the back of a chair or the cheerfulness," he added, "as early as 11:30 a.m. Sunday, earlier on in the day and later went out to a little glowing fire. It was told us, and when we arrived the fire department was there."

NOTICED . . . along the way

Major Joseph Holton didn't let the grass grow under his feet while he was attending the Calgary Stampede. He was doing some spare work. His worship saw his opportunity to get a little spare time when he met up with RCMP Commissioner Harveyson. Commenting on the fine performance the RCMP Musical Ride was turning in at the Western show, the mayor asked the commissioner if he thought there was a chance of having the musical ride perform at Lindsay Central Exhibition, all other things being equal.

To his surprise, the commissioner said it was entirely likely that the RCMP felt it would be a good thing for spreading national pride if the crowd riding out could put on a show at any of the smaller centres. Now all that remains is for the mayor to sell the idea to Lindsay Central Exhibition and there is a good chance the show could be brought here in 1963.

His worship is also credited with inspiring a new musical treat for Lindsay. According to usually well-informed sources, a "Kazo-cast" will be mounted.

Homemaking Hints

It is not advisable to freeze cooked or ready-to-serve meats for longer than 40 days, say home economists at MacDonald Institute, Guelph. Long storage of meat in the freezer can bind to favor the development of rancidity when the meat is frozen.

Refrigerate all leftovers immediately, advise home economists at MacDonald Institute, Guelph. Placing the food in shallow pans at temperatures below 45 degrees F. is the most effective control against food poisoning.

Eating a good lunch today. Skipping meals, especially the noon meal, is not a good practice for efficiency on the job.

Nutritionists at MacDonald Institute, Guelph, say that those who eat nutritious foods, in moderate amounts, at noon are able to work more efficiently than those who skip lunch. For most people a well-chosen lunch will help to eliminate the "four o'clock slump" and the fatigue at the end of the day.

Chill your favorite soup and serve it icy cold, suggest food experts at MacDonald Institute, Guelph. Served in sturdy glasses, nested in a bowl of cracked ice, chilled cream soups and chowder, will help to eliminate the "four o'clock slump" and the fatigue at the end of the day.

Slugs Can Shred Green Plants

The slug is one of the most common pests in the garden. Evidence of his work is never hard to find especially in cool, wet weather. Nothing is more annoying to the gardener and than to see those plants that have just been set out, reduced to shreds in a few hours.

Slugs are not particular about their diet, and just about anything will come under their voracious attack. They are able to be attracted even when periods of cold, frost or heat won't slow them down.

Here are a few tips from horticulturists with the Ontario Department of Agriculture on how to control this pest.

One of the most important factors is sanitation. Slugs hide under all sorts of rubbish during the day, so get rid of any debris lying around as well as weed beds and brush piles.

The fact that slugs like to hide under rubbish can be made use of in establishing a trap. Set a piece of bark about 6 inches square close to the edge of the garden. The slugs will travel the slugs and should be regularly checked for their presence, preferably early in the morning. Any slugs present can be killed. An old method is to use a mixture of kerosene and water.

Metaldolide, baits are also effective and are sold in many commercial forms. Apply the bait at dusk in small piles about the size of a fifty-cent piece in the area to be protected. Fresh applications are needed after rain. This is one of the most common forms of control.

Copper-based dials (I part dehydrated copper sulphate and 10 parts hydrated lime) are also sometimes used. They are most effective when applied after dusk on a mild, moist night.

Garden Fresh Peas

Have you tried fresh green peas this season? Those of you who grow peas in your garden are truly fortunate. However, with new improved methods of shipping, delicious garden fresh peas are now available to the consumer.

Food experts at MacDonald Institute, Guelph, suggest that peas, like other vegetables, be cooked quickly in moderate amount of boiling water, uncovered for the first five minutes. Then they will retain their nutritive value, turn them dark in color, and makes them too soft.

It is recommended cooking time is approximately 10 minutes. They should be cooked only until they are "tender crisp." Leaving the lid off heightens the green color.

Here's a tip for using left-over peas. Put them in a bowl with finely shredded raw cabbage and fold into a partially set line or omelette. Raw shredded or cooked dried beans are a welcome and colorful addition to this salad.

90% of all oil company product research in Canada
is done by Imperial

At Imperial Oil's laboratories at Sarnia, Ontario, more than 200 scientists and technicians are working to improve present petroleum products and to develop new ones. Their research covers many fields, from gasoline to household detergents.

Another 130 scientists and technicians are working at Imperial's Calgary laboratories and are working to find and produce more Canadian oil and natural gas. Imperial does more research than all other oil companies in Canada combined.

Esso

Every barrel of crude oil contains some of the sun's heat. Imperial research works to unlock more of this energy. After five years of intensive research, Esso has developed a new type of gasoline called Imperial 90. It's a chemical miracle which makes more power from less oil. It's the most advanced gasoline yet developed. It's the most advanced gasoline yet developed. It's the most advanced gasoline yet developed.

Friday the really big day of the Calgary engagement

Many and varied were the comments on the big day of the month night. The band's mammoth welcome home parade was thrilled, when in the lead, the band, the St. Paul's, was the biggest thing since the stamped parade. The parade route quite as a display as the parade. The band, the Kinnamen in broncos bustling lines, it was said.

"This sure is shades of the Stampede," exclaimed Mr. St. Paul's, "the band's mammoth welcome home parade."

Remarking on the Monday night reception.

STOP!... killing yourself

By Peter J. Steinhorn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

HUSBAND'S EYE LOOK YELLOW

Dear Dr. Steinhorn: My husband's eyes are always glazed, bloodshot and yellow looking. Can this condition be caused by excessive beer and whiskey drinking? It doesn't seem to make him drunk, but I can't help wondering what it is doing to his health, and why a person needs such strong stimulants and so much of it? On your opinion please, — Mrs. W.

Comment: I don't know your husband's age, how long he has been drinking excessively. If he has jaundice (yellow eyes, yellow skin, etc.) I'd want to be sure that he hasn't cirrhosis of the liver, or some other serious involvement. My opinion is that the sooner you get him to a doctor the better.

I have just received a warning put out by the University of Rochester Department of Pharmacology regarding the use of ipsec, which is many times as used to induce vomiting in cases of suspected poison.

Occasionally, by mistake, the more powerful ipec, "fui destryat," instead of the less "syrup" is given. According to the University of Rochester the fruit extract is 14 times as potent as syrup of ipsec, and can sometimes prove fatal. Look twice at the label — which is a good rule for all medicines — before taking, or giving.

In spite of many warnings against the promises and practices of quacks who have special formulae for the cure of cancer, I continue to get occasional letters from people who believe these people really have a cure for cancer. For example, today's mail contained a letter from a reader who was sure that a "milk and banana" diet was the answer to cancer. It's not that the ingredients of these diets are harmful; it's the loss of time, the putting off of scientific medical treatment with surgery or radiation or X rays. As we all know, cancer can be cured if we see it early enough, but is incurable when the patient comes after it has spread.

Dear Dr. Steinhorn: I get mixed up with people two types of temperature readings. I know that the normal body temperature is 98.6 Fahrenheit, but it is sometimes expressed in Centigrade. What is normal in Centigrade and how do you change one into the other? I mean if I had 100 Fahrenheit, what would be its equivalent in Centigrade? — Mr. N.

Comment: The normal body temperature in Centigrade is 37 degrees. To change a Centigrade reading to Fahrenheit multiply it by 9/5 and add 32. To change Fahrenheit to Centigrade you subtract 32 from the Fahrenheit reading and multiply by 5/9.

For Mrs. L: What more can you do than you are? You have called the doctor to see your husband, you are trying to help with his diet and the medicines he is supposed to take, but he is stubborn and insists that both you and the doctor are alimists. Ulcer doesn't show on X-rays or four shots of liquor and two packs of cigarettes every day. If we "won't listen to good sense, someday —" it will happen with stubborn patients — the ulcer will take over with such warnings as hemorrhage, perforation, or obstructing the passage of food from the stomach into the intestines. Keep trying. At least you will have no regrets — you've been wanting to help. (Released by the Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Bolsover Ratepayers Assoc. asks council to meet Fridays, hold nominations on Saturday

The Executive of the Bolsover Resort Association drew a preliminary address to pre-council outlining the organizing of the association, its aims and purposes, and putting forth five items for discussion with Council on behalf of the members.

The items submitted for consideration by council were: First, that township council meetings be held on a Friday evening or Saturday so executives could more conveniently attend, without having to drive many miles, especially for a midweek meeting. Second, that the annual nominations for township council members be held on a Saturday so summer residents could attend.

Although nothing was finalized at this meeting, both executive and council became acquainted and the ground-work was laid for future meetings. On their departure, Ross and John Allan addressed without losing time from work to do so. Third, that if election day itself could not be changed to a Saturday, that an Advance Poll be permitted on the Saturday prior to elections so summer residents may exercise their franchise. Fourth, that consideration be given to providing garbage collection in the township. Fifth, that more adequate lighting and police protection be provided in the Bolsover area, and especially at the canal swing bridge. The first three items were taken under consideration, the last two were subject to much discussion, together with the matter of recent re-assessment.

STOP!... kill your fun

By Peter J. Steincorn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

SELFISHNESS

At a recent after-dinner discussion my favorite gadfly had us all in a friendly but heated discussion. This chest surgeon with the usual provocative pin in his eye said, "Everybody in this world is selfish. No matter what we do - good or bad - is for our own self." In the group were two Internists, another surgeon, a layman and myself. One by one we tried to get him to define selfishness. Did he mean that people wanted to feed their ego? Did he refer, for example, that when he operated without fee on a poor person who required a three-hour operation and weeks of aftercare that he was being selfish?

"Yes," he said. "I may have been doing something altruistic for the patient, but in the main my help made ME feel good. Therefore I was being selfish."

One internist asked, "When sister the dangers on, in and you being selfish the other around water. According to morning when I saw you at the hospital at 2 a.m. to check on of the 6,500 drowned in 1960 a postoperative care." You only about 2,500 were in the hospital had sent one of the water at the time. The others were in boating accidents or fishing, or standing on docks.

"patient," he said. "I had trouble sleeping. My getting was just to put my mind at ease so I could be back and get some sleep. What do you call that? Being a great humanitarian or just being plain selfish?"

And so it went on and on, for about an hour and a half, and we couldn't influence our good friend to change his mind.

Knowing him and the good he does for other people (day and night), I said, "The devil with semantics. Call it being selfish, although we prefer another label. Thank God the medical profession has many selfish doctors like you."

WATER SAFETY?

Summer brings the fun days - and the tragic days, too. It is a time for great activity outdoors - and for many accidents. For example, one sister the dangers on, in and you being selfish the other around water. According to morning when I saw you at the hospital at 2 a.m. to check on of the 6,500 drowned in 1960 a postoperative care." You only about 2,500 were in the hospital had sent one of the water at the time. The others were in boating accidents or fishing, or standing on docks.

Women of the Moose met with a large number of co-workers in attendance. This being the first meeting of the new year, the new slate of officers were in charge with Senior Regent Joyce Townsend presiding.

PLEASANT POINT

A startling experience. Home from Finland.

PLEASANT POINT

O. G. Silverbrooke of the Ontario Film, Census Board, Toronto, and Mrs. Silverbrooke had a startling experience recently which was accompanied by keen disappointment. Having packed their trailer and the family car they left on a motor trip to the Canadian West. All went well for the first few hours but on reaching the Perry sound the car suddenly caught fire and before they could say "Jack Robinson" the trailer and car were engulfed in flames. In the matter of minutes the entire outfit was completely destroyed. The cause still remains a mystery. In the meantime, the summer home at Pleasant Point had been rented for a month to Toronto friends.

Mrs. R. B. Cook of Toronto who has been a summer resident here for many years, returned a few days ago from a five-week holiday spent in Finland and England. Mrs. Cook accompanied her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cook, and the family. Mrs. Cook was prompted by the sudden passing of the mother of Mrs. Gordon Cook, who was a native of Finland. Mrs. Cook reports an interesting tour of some of the important places in Finland from their stopping points in the ancient city of Helsinki, a city which dates back 450 years. Today, she says, the city presents an interesting contrast to visitors delivered an impressive ac-with its fine old buildings, cobblestone roads and walks and the increasing construction of modern places of business and homes. Mrs. Cook, while in Finland, was only 15 miles from the Russian border, and was acquainted with the many cemeteries filled with the graves of countless thousands of Finnish people who lost their lives in defense of their country when invaded by the enemy.

An interesting sidelight to the sojourn in Finland was a cruise on a 60-passenger steamer owned and piloted by the father of Mrs. Cook, through a scenic 38,000-island week. The cruise lasted three days.

A flight to London and three days spent in sightseeing was greatly enjoyed. A number of historic and traditional places of interest were visited and the party also witnessed the changing of the guard as well as the Queen's annual garden party. In London, stated Mrs. Cook, there is a magic blending of the old with the modern architecture of today and there is still places and places filled with the rubble of war.

Mrs. and Mrs. P. Aronowitch and children of Toronto, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Pitts at their summer home.

Archbishop of Ontario in St. John's Anglican Church, Peterborough, made his annual trip to the Union Church on Sunday and sang two numbers in their pleasing soprano voice.

The plastic bag that was a danger last year is still one of the greatest dangers, and will probably continue to be one for many years to come. No amount of safety education will change this fact, but it is not to the point out of furniture polish or the searing property out of boiling water. The facts are simple and most people know them by heart. Plastic film is alright. The very thin kind has the added ability to attract static electricity, allowing it to cling to the face. These facts put together spell suffocation if the fabric is misused. The Ontario Safety League warns parents to avoid this plastic in the crib, in the carriage or playpen, or in the house at all, is a suffocation threat to their children. Find it now, and destroy it.

Fenelon girl graduates from Civic Hospital School of Nursing

Fenelon Falls (PNS)—Miss Marilyn Dabhy, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Dabhy, was among those who graduated from the Peterborough Civic Hospital School of Nursing.

Prior to graduation there were several social functions in honour of the graduates and their parents, namely, the Father and Daughter banquet and a Mother and Daughter Tea.

The 1962 graduating class was honoured at the Church of the Open Bible, when a special service was held for them, in which Miss Dabhy had part of the reading of the Scripture. Following the service a social hour was enjoyed in the church parlours where refreshments were served for the graduates and their friends.

During her training, Miss Dabhy took an active interest in the Nurses' Christian Fellowship Association and accepted many opportunities to use her talents, vocally and instrumentally at Christian functions held in different churches in the city.

Miss Dabhy has been accepted on the staff of Wellstep St. Hospital in Toronto, where she will be engaged in the field of surgery.

Fenelon boy to try out with Guelph Royals on Jr. A. Club

Fenelon Falls (PNS)—Ron Oliver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Oliver, Bond St. W., who has been one of the outstanding boys on hockey teams in the district for the past few winters, has received an invitation from the Guelph Royals Junior A Hockey Club to be present on August 16th at the Guelph Memorial Gardens for a try-out with that club.

The invitation was sent by the secretary, W. T. Towell, at the request of Jack Humphrey, president and General Manager.

Ken has displayed much ability as a hockey player with the Fenelon Falls Bantams, under the coaching of W. Towell, and in the past three winters with the Bobcaygeon Midgets and Juniors. Last year he reached the finals in the playoffs. While with the Bobcaygeon Midgets and the Juniors he was coached by S. Nichols.

Sporting fans of the district will be watching Ron advance in his hockey career and intend to hear his very best wishes.

YOUR VACATION

Smart burglars make hay in vacation time. They choose homes that look vacant; pilfer at their leisure. When you leave on vacation keep a couple of small lamps burning; use milk and paper deliveries. And, most important make sure your possessions are protected by a blanket burglary insurance policy. It costs so little.

He is expected to be named to NATO as Allied Supreme Commander... succeeding General Lauris Norstad, who resigned the post last week.

WILL LEAVE FOR WASHINGTON

U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk has announced that he will leave Geneva for Washington today. Since he arrived in Geneva Friday, Rusk has held three cold war talks with Soviet Foreign Minister Gromyko without breaking their deadlock over the Berlin problem. But both sides have indicated that they wish to keep the talks going at some level.

TWO-HOUR TALK

U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson held a two-hour talk in Moscow this morning before Thompson left for Moscow post to return to the United States. Thompson declined immediate comment on the meeting which was technically a final protocol visit. But the conference provided a chance to review the entire range of East-West problems especially Berlin and disarmament.

LAST-MINUTE EFFORTS

Ontario's Chief Correlation Officer, Louis Pine, gets down to last-minute efforts today to avert a strike of brewery workers throughout the province. Union membership meetings are scheduled for next weekend to vote on strike action. The Toronto local has already approved strike action if wage increase demands are not met.

MEET IN BRUSSELS

Ministers of the six Common Market countries are meeting again in Brussels with chief negotiator for Britain's proposed entry into the trade group Edward Heath. They will spend four days talking over the proposed entry... a matter of interest to Canadians since it will affect Britain's Common Market trade. Heath says he plans to discuss Agricultural products-including meat and eggs-with the ministers.

Waiting for trial in Lindsay, Ontario, charged with murder in car

Belt failed, blanket straps resorted to

A young Kingston man was found hanging in the county jail last week.

Twenty-five-year-old Leo Cahill was awaiting trial on a charge of rape in connection with a young girl from the Municipality of York.

Jail guard Earl Smith is reportedly found Cahill hanging from straps of his own blanket.

Present charges are reported to have been made, as Cahill had made an earlier attempt on his life with his belt.

Governor W. Hartwick said this morning that all unnecessary articles of clothing and bedding had been removed at that time.

Crown Attorney L. Jordan, vacationing in the north land was contacted. Police Chief John Hunter said today.

Coroner Dr. W. R. Crowe ordered the body removed to the Ross Memorial Hospital where a post mortem was held this morning.

An inquest is mandatory in death of this nature, but as yet, no date has been arranged.

No memory of accident, driver says

William R. Dew, 16, of Queensville, had a lapse of memory after suffering a slight concussion following a car accident on the Kemnitz Lake Rd. near West Gullford last week.

Police say that Dew, and a 16-year-old brother of Kingston were the victims of a head-on collision in the Haliburton Red Cross Hospital, and treated for concussion last week.

Dr. H. E. Good, and then released.

He told police that the accident involved any details of the accident.

Three other passengers in the car were uninjured. Damage to the Dew car is estimated at about $500 and to the other vehicle $400.

Police say charges will be laid, O.P.P. Const. J. Parson said the accident was investigated.

C of C manager hits jackpot

Chamber of Commerce Manager Harry H. MacDonald, announced this morning at a luncheon that he had won $100,000 in a lottery.

MacDonald, who was interviewed by the press, said he was driving his truck parked on William St., when sighted by a reporter from "The Post."

There was a car lighter bag from Floyd E. Hall, Hamilton, back inside the car.

MacDonald said he was interviewed at the Cottage Restaurant, sponsored by Radio Station CFBF, when he was interviewed by the press.

CONGENITAL ANEURYSM
Dear Dr. Steiner: My husband and I have been steady readers of your column for several years. Many times I have been about to write you concerning a problem when, as if by magic or some mental telepathy, an answer to my question would appear in your column.

However, we recently lost a nephew, and the cause of death has belied us to the extent that I decided to write and ask you if you could enlighten us. He was only 22 years old, very happily married and the father of two small sons, ages 4 and 5. He had been troubled with tension headaches, but was never really sick - used to nap after meals, but was very active - played golf, bowled, etc.

Last week after supper one night he suddenly died. The autopsy showed it was a cerebral aneurysm. We are all still shocked. It was so sudden. Might it have been discovered in time? Could he have been helped? - Mrs. X.

Comment: What a tragic story. It always is when an apparently healthy person suddenly - dies.

HOUSEFUL OF PROBLEMS should be considered one of the most common of all child health problems. I am the mother of seven children, five boys aged 4, 6, 7, 11, 13, and 13 and two girls aged 8 and 10. They are all allergic with only occasional dry cough. Can you give me any advice on how to cope with this problem? They've been checked for physical causes. Everything seems to be all right. I never punish or blame them. I seldom get angry about it in their presence, but I admit I occasionally get in a corner and blow off steam.

I try to build their confidence that they won't get any more. I assure them that they will grow out of it... and send up a silent prayer that they really will. My husband is very understanding of the problem, too. We read to them at bedtime. They are all about average intelligence, with a liberal sprinkling of As and Bs in their reports from school. Each has a different personality and they have several different problems. The laundry is maddening. Diapers and waterproof pants cause serious diaper rash. I am loving home. Can you help me?

Dear Dr. Steinerhohn: I am 35. During the last three months, I have developed shortness of breath. The slightest exertion brings it on. I haven't been to a doctor in many years. Is it necessary? — Mrs. A.

Comment: The commonest cause of shortness of breath is a failing heart. Chronic lung disease can do it, too. Severe anemia is another one of many other causes. Yes, I'd say it is about time you see your doctor. If the trouble is due to congestive heart failure or to treatable anemia, your doctor will be able to relieve your shortness of breath within days or weeks. If due to bronchitis or some other lung condition, the remedy may be so dramatic.

Dear Dr. Steinerhohn: I have had hay fever for years. I have tried just about everything under the sun. But still I sneeze, sniffle and have red, itchy eyes. Do you recommend anything? I take the newly marketed "one shot" treatment for hay fever? — Mrs. S.

Comment: I am not recommending it yet as a routine type of treatment. There have been some severe reactions. Until an effective, new treatment is proved in practice, I

HOT DRINKS FOR HOT DAYS?

Dear Dr. Steinhorn: There are scientific truths to the saying that hot drinks will cool you off better than cold drinks. My grandmother says there's nothing better than a hot cup of tea in the summertime when you're uncomfortable with the heat. — Mrs. T.

Comment: It's all a matter of taste. Which makes you feel better, a bang cold glass of tea or a hot cup? Each must find his personal preference and not be influenced by what people say is "best" for you.

One person will say, "There's nothing as refreshing as a glass of cold water." Another that a carbonated drink is the trick. — although the latter is no more effective in reducing the dryness in the tissues than plain water. Another that a cold, sweet drink works better than a sour one. Yet another that the sweet drink leaves some sugar on the mucous membranes of the throat which can attract germs what can act as an emollient effect that tends to remove water from the cells and dry out the throat which produces an increased sensation of thirst.

None, as for grandma's suggestion, it is not true that the hot drink cools the body more than a cold one. When you're hot and uncomfortable, the blood vessels in your skin are fully dilated already, and you are having as much heat loss as possible. Taking a hot drink only adds more heat to the body.

Dear Dr. Steinhorn: I am 68 years old and weigh 200 pounds. My height is 5 feet 8 1/2 inches. Do you think that at my age I should try and take off any great amount of weight? How much would you advise? I recently had a complete physical by the Veterans Administration. — my weight was not mentioned. I have no heart trouble, my wind is good and I walk two to three miles every day. It's well worth the weight. Will you give me your advice about weight reduction in my case? — Mr. A.

Comment: I have been reading of something recently developed by research findings by the Alcohol Research Foundation. This drug is called Tempol. — which is a powerful diuretic. I have heard that it has been used by the military under a doctor's direction and with the full cooperation of the patient.

According to these recent findings, Tempol protects the reticular director for two or three days, about long enough to manage a drink free weekend — and it works with in 2 to 3 hours. Antibiotic takes a number of days to sanitize water from the cells and dry out the throat which produces an increased sensation of thirst.

Wouldn't it be wonderful if scientists could come up with a drug given to people which would sanitize the skin, chronic

Winnetts will attend convention

All members of the Lindsay congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses will be leaving this area shortly to attend the "Courageous Ministers District Assembly" at Civic Stadium, Hamilton, August 30 to 5. It was announced today by Mr. Peacock, district minister of the group.

"An attendance of over 12,000 is anticipated," stated Mr. Peacock. "Delegates will come from Ontario, Quebec and northern states of the United States. At this time when there is such fear in the world it is important to reaffirm confidence for humankind under Christ's Kingdom."

The "Courageous Ministers District Assembly" is an expression of our faith in the promises of a coming government where people can live on this earth in happiness and security. It is the duty of the existing uncertainty."

"All for Mary" at Red Barn

Starting a week from Tuesday, the Red Barn Theatre in Jackson's Point will offer a fortunate combination of talents for the amusement of holiday strollers with Green, who directed the successful production of "SALTOR BE WARE" in this city, will direct the zany comedy, "ALL FOR MARY," by Kay Ransmeyer and Harold Brooks.

"ALL FOR MARY" will star Emma Ehlberg and Paddy Croft, and feature Joyce Gordon. The play tells the fantastic story of a married couple on holiday in the French Alps. Comic horror strikes when Humphrey, the husband, is kidnapped and is quarantined in a room with Humphrey's wife. Humphrey soon finds how mistaken he is to ask his old maid to nurse him back to health, for she virtually imprisons the under her care, leaving them to wait helplessly while Mary goes skimming with the amorous hot-keeper.
